ABOUT AMERSFOORT INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Amersfoort International School (AIS) started in 2023 and offers English-language international primary education to children aged 4-12. The school is now preparing for authorisation by the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme (IB PYP).

AIS is a Dutch International Primary School (DIPS) located near the historical centre of Amersfoort. The school shares a building with a Dutch primary school, De Kubus, and is governed by the AnnoNu school board, a group of 24 Dutch national schools in the Amersfoort region.

The school's vision is to be a learning community based on inclusion and equal opportunities, thus empowering students to become internationally-minded and successful learners in an ever-changing world. This is reflected in the school's mission statement, 'Learning for All.'
